

First I am opposed to lifting or relaxing of restrictions on the number of radio and television stations or other media outlet that any one individual, corporation or company may own. I am also opposed to how one corporation or company can monopolize a particular market. This limits the public's options for viewing, restricts the free flow of ideas and opinions, and generally hurts democracy. I am also concerned by the lack of public notification regarding hearings on possible FCC action on this subject.